Steven R. Antico focuses his practice in corporate and tax law, mergers, acquisitions and reorganizations, health and regulatory structuring and regulatory submissions, business succession planning, and innovative business guidance and analysis. With over 25 years of experience, he is known as a business-oriented legal and business advisor with a demonstrated commitment to working with diverse cultures and communities in the New York and New Jersey metropolitan area, and has created transformative relationships and alignment strategies for his clients.

Mr. Antico has substantial experience working with many kinds of healthcare and commercial businesses and organizations, and presently provides strategic and tactical guidance to enable clients to achieve goals, identify beneficial synergies, create alignment and consolidation strategies, enhance and expand existing business lines and develop new business lines and venture opportunities.

Mr. Antico presently represents and counsels:

- acute care and long-term care systems and providers;
- ambulatory care, diagnostic testing, substance abuse and treatment facilities;
- clinical laboratories and pharmacies;
- ancillary service providers that provide home health, home care, medical and education based rehabilitation services, and numerous other services;
- large single-specialty and multi-specialty professional practices, clinically integrated networks and delivery models, independent practice associations, and Medicare Shared Savings ACOs and Managed Medicaid ACOs;
- private equity and venture capital funds; and
- real estate holding companies.

A prolific legal writer and lecturer, Mr. Antico has written many publications and presented numerous seminars covering a range of subjects, including mergers, acquisitions and reorganizations, health and regulatory structuring and planning, and corporate and tax law.

Mr. Antico received his B.S. in Finance from St. John's University, his J.D. from New York Law School, and his LL.M. in Taxation from the Villanova University School of Law. He also served with distinction as a Captain in the United States Marine Corps.
