Philip A. Hammarberg's practice focuses on advising and representing hospitals, hospital systems, health care management companies and a variety of other clients on a host of business, regulatory, compliance and transactional matters. Mr. Hammarberg is particularly focused on assisting clients with technology transactions, privacy and data security matters. Mr. Hammarberg's practice also includes a focus on intellectual property matters including the management and development of trademark and copyright portfolios, and advising clients on issues related to prosecution and acquisition of intellectual property. In addition, he assists clients in obtaining copyright and trademark registrations.

Prior to joining Garfunkel Wild, P.C., Mr. Hammarberg gained experience in healthcare compliance, drafting and negotiating agreements for healthcare providers, healthcare payer audits, and intellectual property matters. Mr. Hammarberg frequently worked with healthcare providers to design and implement compliance programs to meet New York State and Federal requirements. He routinely conducted compliance trainings for physician practices, laboratories, and large institutional skilled nursing facilities. Additionally, he was instrumental in negotiating numerous settlements involving alleged overpayments.
